

Reading Mock 1 — answer booklet

Answers and how to award the marks

Accept any answer that means the same as the points listed, even if it is worded differently. Spelling and grammar are not marked in the reading test. The domain column shows the reading skill each question tests (2a word meaning · 2b retrieval · 2c summarising · 2d inference · 2e prediction · 2f structure · 2g language · 2h comparison).

Puffins: Clowns of the Sea

Q	Answer	Marks	How to award	Domain
1	the clown of the sea	1	Award 1 mark for 'the clown of the sea' or 'clown of the sea'. Also accept 'a clown'.	2b
2	out on the open sea	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2b
3	ashore	1	Award 1 mark for 'ashore'.	2a
4	Acceptable points: • to attract a mate / partner • to show that they are healthy and strong	2	Award 1 mark for each acceptable point, up to a maximum of 2 marks. 'To show they are healthy' and 'to show they are strong' count as the same point. Do not accept 'to look nice' or 'to scare predators'.	2b
5	dropped off	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2a
6	Acceptable points: • postcard photos are taken in spring/summer (the breeding season), when puffins are on land and their beaks are colourful • in January the puffin's beak is smaller and duller and its face is darker grey	1	Award 1 mark for an answer that links the postcard to the colourful summer/breeding-season appearance, or explains the duller winter appearance, e.g. 'the postcard photo was taken in summer when its beak is bright'. Do not accept answers that only say 'it is a different puffin'.	2d
7	Puffins lay their eggs on bare cliff ledges. — False Puffins sometimes move into old rabbit burrows. — True Puffins use their beaks and feet to dig. — True The female puffin lays two eggs. — False Only the mother keeps the egg warm. — False	2	Award 2 marks for all five correct. Award 1 mark for three or four correct.	2b

8	4 The puffling swims out to sea alone. 1 The female lays a single egg in the burrow. 3 The parents bring fish to the puffling in the burrow. 2 The puffling hatches, covered in dark grey down.	1	Award 1 mark for all four events numbered correctly.	2b
9	Acceptable points: • they stop looking after / feeding it • they do not go with it / leave it to survive on its own	1	Award 1 mark for any acceptable point. Do not accept answers that simply repeat 'it must look after itself' without saying what the parents do.	2d
10	sand eels sprats	1	Award 1 mark for both correct options ticked and no others.	2b
11	Acceptable points: • puffins are not really flying because they are in the water • their wings move as if they are flying, but they are actually swimming • the word is not meant literally	1	Award 1 mark for any acceptable point showing that the word is not being used in its usual/literal sense. Do not accept 'because it is a quote' or 'to show someone is speaking'.	2g
12	Acceptable points: • in winter, puffins live far out at sea • they do not come back to land at all until spring • the colonies are empty after summer	1	Award 1 mark for an explanation that refers to puffins being far out at sea / not returning to land until spring.	2d
13	Acceptable points: • the puffins' burrows are underground in the soft clifftop, so walking off the path could crush or damage them • visitors might tread on eggs or pufflings hidden in burrows • to avoid disturbing the nesting puffins	1	Award 1 mark for an answer linked to protecting the burrows, eggs, chicks or nesting birds. Do not accept 'so they don't get lost' or 'so they don't fall off the cliff'.	2d
14	Why is the beak so colourful? → what the beak's colours are for and how they change Home sweet burrow → how and where puffins nest What do puffins eat? → how	1	Award 1 mark for all four correctly matched.	2c

puffins hunt and carry their food Where do puffins go in winter? → how puffins spend the colder months far from land
---	--	--	--

The Hedgehog Highway

Q	Answer	Marks	How to award	Domain
15	Acceptable points: • the rain was very heavy / hard • it hit the window with force • it was loud / made a rattling or clattering noise	1	Award 1 mark for any acceptable point about the force, heaviness or noise of the rain. Do not accept 'it was wet' or 'it was stony'.	2g
16	Any two of: • plant pots (knocked on their sides) • the washing line (snapped) • a fence panel (blown flat onto the lawn)	1	Award 1 mark for any two acceptable points.	2b
17	Acceptable points: • he came out straight away / as soon as he got up, because he had not got dressed or brushed his hair • he was so eager/excited to see the damage or talk to Edie that he rushed out	1	Award 1 mark for an answer showing that Harry rushed out immediately, linked to the evidence of pyjamas/untidy hair or to his eagerness. Do not accept 'he was tired' on its own.	2d
18	a pine cone	1	Award 1 mark for 'a pine cone' or 'pine cone'.	2b
19	Acceptable points: • Harry never raised his voice, so it was a surprise • Harry was usually quiet and let Edie decide things • she did not expect him to stop her	1	Award 1 mark for an answer showing it was unexpected because of how Harry usually behaves. Do not accept 'because he was loud' without reference to it being unusual.	2d
20	Acceptable points: • milk is bad for hedgehogs / gives them upset tummies • you should not pick a hedgehog up with bare hands	2	Award 1 mark for each acceptable point, up to a maximum of 2 marks. Gloves, box and towel together count as one point.	2b

	• a hedgehog out in the daytime usually means something is wrong • you need gloves, a box and an old towel • you should phone a hedgehog rescue
21	She put aside her wish to be the one in charge.	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2a
22	Acceptable points: • Edie usually decides things, but she asked him to be in charge • she called him 'the expert' • he was not used to people listening to him / taking his advice	1	Award 1 mark for an answer showing that Edie handing control to Harry, or calling him the expert, was unusual.	2d
23	the football boot box → to carry the hedgehog in the gardening gloves → to protect Harry's hands the hot-water bottle → to keep the hedgehog warm the shallow dish → to give the hedgehog a drink	1	Award 1 mark for all four correctly matched.	2b
24	Acceptable points: • she is honest (she admits her own mistake) • she is fair / generous — she gives Harry the credit • she is no longer annoyed with Harry / she is proud of him	1	Award 1 mark for any acceptable point about Edie's character or feelings. Do not accept 'she is pointing' or answers that only retell the event.	2d
25	What it is: • a small gap at the bottom of a fence (about the size of a CD case). Why it is needed: • hedgehogs travel a long way at night looking for food • fences often block their way	2	Award 2 marks for an answer that explains both what a hedgehog highway is AND why it is needed. Award 1 mark for an answer that explains only one of these.	2b
26	Acceptable points (yes): • there is now a gap in their fence, so Gale can travel through their gardens at night	1	Award 1 mark for a plausible prediction supported by reference to the text. Do not accept a prediction with no explanation.	2e

	• Edie says 'She knows the way already' • Harry calls it 'her highway', so she will keep using it • they were told hedgehogs travel a long way looking for food. Also accept a reasoned 'no', e.g. hedgehogs only come out at night, when the children are asleep.
27	Acceptable points: • At the start, Harry is quiet / shy and lets Edie be in charge, e.g. 'Harry never raised his voice'; 'he usually let Edie decide things'; 'he was the quiet one'. • He becomes confident / brave enough to speak up and stop Edie, e.g. "Don't!" he said, so sharply that she jumped'; 'he did not let go'. • He takes charge and uses his knowledge, e.g. 'Then he nodded and took charge'; 'lifted the hedgehog into it as gently as if it were made of glass'. • By the end he is proud / pleased with himself, e.g. 'Harry turned so red that even his ears glowed, but he was smiling too'; 'Of course she does... It's her highway.'	3	Award 3 marks for two acceptable points (for example, how Harry is at the start and how he is later), at least one with evidence. Award 2 marks for two acceptable points with no evidence, or one acceptable point with evidence. Award 1 mark for one acceptable point. Answers must show a change for full marks; do not accept answers that only describe what Harry does to help the hedgehog without referring to his character or feelings.	2d

The Girl on the Promenade

Q	Answer	Marks	How to award	Domain
28	a hut on wheels where visitors changed before bathing	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2b
29	Acceptable points: • she thinks they are unnecessary / silly / a waste of effort	1	Award 1 mark for an answer showing Ada thinks the machines are unnecessary or over the top. Do not accept 'she likes them'.	2d

	• she thinks the visitors make too much fuss just to go in the sea • she does not see why anyone would mind being seen in the water
30	Money was too important to turn down.	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2a
31	the railway (had come to the town)	1	Award 1 mark for reference to the railway / trains.	2b
32	Acceptable points: • 'as gentle as a sleeping cat' suggests the sea can be calm, quiet, peaceful or harmless • 'as savage as a wolf' suggests the sea can be wild, fierce, dangerous or violent • together they show the sea can change suddenly / is unpredictable	2	Award 2 marks for an answer that explains both comparisons, e.g. 'Sometimes the sea is calm and peaceful, but it can suddenly become wild and dangerous.' Award 1 mark for an explanation of one comparison only. Do not accept answers that only say the sea is like animals.	2g
33	Acceptable points: • jealousy / envy / resentment, because the girl's clothes were clean and new while Ada's feet were sandy and her skirt was stiff with salt • she felt poor / scruffy / ashamed compared with the girl	1	Award 1 mark for naming an appropriate feeling (jealous, envious, resentful, ashamed, bitter) with a reason linked to the text. Do not accept 'angry' or 'sick' without a reason.	2d
34	sad and regretful	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2a
35	Acceptable points: • she wants to remember exactly what the sea feels like, because she is not allowed to go in it herself • she is imagining the feeling of the water • Ada's description is precious to her	1	Award 1 mark for an answer that links Lucinda's action to wanting to remember or imagine the sea, because she cannot experience it herself.	2d
36	Acceptable points: • she had kept it on her windowsill for years • 'It was the most precious thing she owned' • she wrapped it in a clean handkerchief • she pushed it into Lucinda's	2	Award 1 mark for each acceptable piece of evidence, up to a maximum of 2 marks. Evidence may be quoted or put in the pupil's own words.	2d hands 'before she could change her mind' • she kept the note 'in the space where the shell used to be'

37	is not permitted to go on the sand — Lucinda walks barefoot on the beach — Ada keeps a note on her windowsill — Ada goes home to London — Lucinda	1	Award 1 mark for all four correct.	2h
38	Acceptable points: • it links back to where Ada first saw Lucinda sitting, showing how much has changed • it shows Ada misses Lucinda / hopes she will come back • at the start Ada disliked the girl on the bench, but now the empty bench makes her feel lonely	1	Award 1 mark for an answer that explains the link to the earlier part of the story OR shows that Ada now misses Lucinda / hopes she will return. Do not accept 'because it is the end'.	2f
39	First impressions of people can be wrong.	1	Award 1 mark for the correct option ticked.	2c
40	Acceptable points: • At first, Ada is jealous of / dislikes Lucinda and thinks she is stuck-up, e.g. 'felt something hot and sour rise in her chest'; 'Stuck-up,' Ada muttered'; 'Thinks she's too grand for the likes of us'. • After talking to her, Ada understands / feels sorry for Lucinda, e.g. 'Ada did not know what to say'; 'It had never occurred to her that Lucinda might have been gazing at the sea... with longing'. • By the end, Ada likes / cares about Lucinda and becomes her friend, e.g. she gives her 'the most precious thing she owned'; 'found that she was smiling too'. • She misses Lucinda after she leaves, e.g. 'she found herself	3	Award 3 marks for two acceptable points (for example, how Ada feels at the start and how she feels later), at least one with evidence. Award 2 marks for two acceptable points with no evidence, or one acceptable point with evidence. Award 1 mark for one acceptable point. Answers must describe a change in feelings for full marks; do not accept answers that only retell events.	2d looking towards the empty bench'.

--------------------------------------	--	--	--